Astrid and Karen Marie informed from the network meeting in Copenhagen, Denmark. The Global Health network was established in 2017 with support from Norplus, and currently comprises seven universities from five Nordic countries. The University of Bergen now joins forces with other Nordic universities in an effort to further expand our course portfolio, and to benefit from the learning in other Nordic environments of higher education. Read more about courses available for guest students here: <https://www.uib.no/en/cih/120807/nordic-network-global-health>

-What to do with OER commons – the platform for sharing educational resources

Bente and Ana presented a new webpage for teaching resources in Global health.

We did not have time for this topic and will come back to this in 2 weeks.
